

International Workshop

Buddhism and Śaivism in Premodern Trans-Himalayan Regions

8 October 2021 (Fri)

17:00-20:00 (JST)/ 10:00-13:00 (CET)

10:00-10:10 (17:00-17:10)

Satoshi OGURA (ILCAA) Introduction

10:10-10:55 (17:10-17:55)

Aleksandra WENTA (University of Florence)

“Interactions between Tantric Forms of Buddhism and Śaivism in the Development of the Cult of Vajrabhairava”

10:55-11:10 (17:55-18:10)

Break

11:10-11:55 (18:10-18:55)

Nina MIRNIG (Austrian Academy of Science)

“Śiva in Good Company: Re-evaluating the Religious Landscape of Early Medieval Nepal”

11:55-12:10 (18:55-19:10)

Diwakar ACHARYA (University of Oxford)

Comments

12:10-13:00 (19:10-20:00)

General Discussion

Language: English Admission: Free Jointly organized by: ILCAA Joint Research Project “Formation of the Indic World: From the Perspective of Frontiers”, Grant-in-Aid for Scientific Research (A) “Comprehensive Studies of Indian Buddhist Monasteries from the Gupta Period Onward” (Principal Investigator: Taiken KYUMA (Mie University) Project number: 18H03569)

Venue : Auditorium, Institut national des langues et civilisations orientales (w/ online broadcast) La Maison de la Recherche, 2 rue de Lille 75007, France
Pre-registration is required for those who attend via online. Please apply to the workshop via the following QR code or URL. Application deadline: 6 October 10:00CET/17:00JST.

<https://forms.gle/KMLqTv4ZKeHaoq4Z7>

